Technology Safety Tips

THINK Is it...

True, Helpful, Inspiring, Necessary and Kind?

- Be aware of what your child is searching
- Talk openly with your child about their online activity.
- Discuss safe versus unsafe practices with boundaries.
- Outline what makes content appropriate versus inappropriate and safe.
- Know who your child's online friends are
- Encourage a "share aware" mindset to protect your privacy.
- Encourage your child to say something to you or a school official if they see something that is unsafe
- Think critically about what you view online

It's all about balance...

- We are a comprehensive high school and have many courses for your student to experience!
- There's something for everyone including art, technology, business, and much more – our course catalog is available online.
- We encourage students to challenge themselves with an Advanced or AP/college level course before graduation.

Counselors work with students 1:1 each year to discuss and plan for their individual post secondary plans. This may include:

- 2 or 4 year college
- Military
- Vocation training/school
- Direct entrance to employment or the workforce

The New York State Seal of Biliteracy (NYSSB)

- Awarded to high school graduates who have attained a high level of proficiency in English and 1 or more languages
- Prepares graduates with biliteracy skills for employers, universities and life
- Affirms the value of diversity in a multilingual society

Awards/Seals that distinguish your diploma

SEAL OF CIVIC READINESS EXPECTATIONS

The Seal of Civic Readiness is a formal recognition that a student has attained a high level of proficiency in terms of civic knowledge, civic skills, civic mindset, and civic experiences. The Seal of Civic Readiness distinction on a high school transcript and diploma:

- shows the student's understanding of a commitment to participatory government; civic responsibility and civic values;
- demonstrates to universities, colleges, and future employers that the student has completed an action project in civics or social justice; and
- recognizes the value of civic engagement and scholarship.

Athletics and Clubs @ IHS

We have a comprehensive list of ways to be involved at IHS

Encourage your child to connect to a sport, music, art, business, technology or any of the additional clubs offered

Substance Use/Abuse How can parents help?

- Monitor your child's behaviors, disposition, and activities closely.
 - Some teens use vapes or other substances to cope with emotional or mental health needs.
 - If you notice any significant changes in your child's behavior or disposition, talk to your child openly about what's going on.
 - Contact your child's school counselor for added supports that the school can offer.
- Talk with your child about the dangers of vaping and general substance use.
 - Many teens don't see vaping as problematic, addictive, or dangerous
 - Vaping can not only be addictive, it can also be life-threatening if injected (with or without consumer knowledge) with other substances.
- Need help?
 - Reach out to Nicole Corcimiglia, WICSD Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist at 585-336-2921 or email at nicole_corcimiglia@westiron.monroe.edu for support
 - Reach out to your School Counselor, Social Worker or Assistant Principal
